

Snow Burst™

Callistemon spp 'CNU07' (b)

NATIVE SHRUBS & GROUND COVERS

This compact Callistemon produces striking white bottle brush flowers.

- Snow Burst™ Callistemon is a compact fine leaf Callistemon that is great as a feature plant or for mass planting and hedging.
- It produces a burst of striking white flowers in Spring, and contrast beautifully with its dark green foliage.
- It has good frost and drought tolerance once established, and will tolerate full sun to partly shaded positions.
- Great for attracting bees and native birds.
- It is a low maintenance Callistemon that requires little to no pruning to maintain a tidy form, but can be pruned yearly to encourage a denser habit.
